The screenshot shows a photo gallery interface. At the top, there are several icons: 'ADD NOTE', 'SEND TO GROUP', 'ADD TO SET', 'BLOG THIS', 'ALL SIZES', 'ORDER PRINTS', 'ROTATE', and 'DELETE'. Below these icons, there is a dropdown menu titled 'Choose a set below (or create a new set)'. The menu lists several categories: Screenshots, Trading Cards, Bookstores, Politicians, Librarians, Music, Authors, and Libraries. A 'Cancel' button is at the bottom of the menu. In the background, there are several photos, including one of a woman's face and another of red high-heeled shoes. Overlaid on the right side of the menu is a dialog box titled 'Create a new set:'. It has a 'Title:' label followed by a text input field, and a 'Description:' label followed by a larger text area. At the bottom of the dialog box, there is a blue button labeled 'CREATE NEW SET' and a 'Cancel' button.

Clicca su “add to set” e poi seleziona “create a new set”.

Creating a group

Create a new group

There are 3 types of groups in Flickr.

Scegli il tipo di gruppo che vuoi creare.

1. Private

- ◆ Private groups are useful for families or groups of friends.
- ◆ Only group members and those who have been invited will be able to view the group page.
- ◆ Private groups are completely hidden from group searches, and don't display on people's profiles amongst groups they belong to.

CREATE

2. Public, invitation only

- ◆ Invite-only public groups are useful for small groups who wish to focus on a particular theme, but want to maintain control over membership.
- ◆ Anyone can view the group page, but the only way to join the group is by invitation.

CREATE

3. Public, anyone can join

- ◆ Public groups are useful for discussion and photos of general subjects like Gardening, or Recipes to Share, or geographical locations, like Vancouver.
- ◆ The group page is public and anyone who wants to can join instantly.

CREATE

(Note: You can choose to hide discussions and/or photo pools from non-members in public groups if you wish.)
